ICE Investigations in the Village of Mamaroneck

On Friday, June 27th, the Village of Mamaroneck Police Department received a call at 8:17 am that ICE agents were in the Village of Mamaroneck conducting an investigation and making several arrests near Columbus Park.

Detectives from the Village of Mamaroneck Police Department responded and canvassed the area and gathered additional information that confirmed that ICE agents were present in the Village of Mamaroneck earlier in the morning and conducted an investigation regarding a specific individual that has criminal convictions and that is undocumented, that individual was not located by them; however, a different individual was arrested at 516 Van Ranst Pl who also had a criminal conviction and was also undocumented.

The Village of Mamaroneck Police Department was not involved or assisted ICE in either investigation.

If you would like further information or details regarding the arrest, please contact the ICE Field Office at (212)436-9315 or email them at NewYork.Outreach@ice.dhs.gov

Please call the Village of Mamaroneck Police Department at 914-777-1122, if you are encountered by ICE and need assistance. The Village of Mamaroneck Police Department cannot stop ICE agents from doing their Job, but can verify their credentials.
